Briefing session

IPU's support to parliaments to strengthen their work on the SDGs: the self-assessment exercise and other activities

Agenda

Virtual meeting (on Zoom)

Date: Thursday, 1 July 2021 Time: 14:00 – 15:00 CEST (Geneva)

14:00 Welcome

14:05 How the IPU provides support to parliaments in the SDGs domain

The briefing will offer parliaments the opportunity to acquire information on how the IPU can help parliaments strengthen their work to effectively deliver on the SDGs, and how it can tailor its support based on parliaments' national contexts and COVID-19 health measures currently in force. More specifically, participants will be provided with practical information on how the IPU can help facilitate: the SDGs self-assessment exercise; introductory and complementary activities to the SDGs self-assessment; capacity building activities with focus on health (in relation to universal health coverage, health emergency preparedness, and women's, children's and adolescents' health) and climate change (for example, on climate legislation, clean and renewable energy, a green COVID-19 recovery); as well as virtual parliamentary exchanges to discuss current challenges and opportunities to contribute to SDGs realization.

14:20 Q&A

15:00 End of the briefing session
